SB 1002 - HB 1089

February 14, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Extends the voter registration deadline to the following Monday for any election in which the voter registration deadline falls on a Sunday. Authorizes the county election commission to print separate municipal ballots when a municipal election is being held in conjunction with a regular general election. Establishes the closing time during three days of early voting for state and federal offices at 8:00 p.m. Eastern and 7:00 p.m. Central time zone.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- Local government expenditures could increase if local election commissions choose to print separate municipal and general election ballots. However, such increase is estimated to be not significant.
